Verbal Description:

Neck Knot Headless

This example includes the left side of the headless, two horizontally incised, rectangular knot loops, one mounted on the center of the headless and the other affixed to the distal margin, and an oval, vertically incised field above the knot motif. The back of the hollow headless is convex, while the heel of the solid flange is flat. Both surfaces are smooth. There is a round opening with finished ledges are pushed toward the internal margins in the center of the ~~the~~ convex back. Internal by cone
